The type of personal information we collect

We currently collect and process the following information:

- Personal identifiers, contacts and characteristics (for example, name and contact details)

How we get the personal information and why we have it

Most of the personal information we process is provided to us directly by you for one of the following reasons:

- You have subscribed to our Email Mailing List,
- You connect with us on Facebook or via Email,
- You have attended an event and left the required contact information for COVID-Secure contact tracing,
- You have subscribed to a paid service via our website.

We use the information that you have given us in order to:

- Send weekly email updates,
- Communicate with you via our Facebook Page or by email,
- Issue event tickets & record who has attended events and when to enable NHS Contact Tracing,
- Maintain a record of those who have had healing, for insurance purposes.
- Provide access to premium content on our website.

We may share this information with:

- NHS Track & Trace or other Government Authority, as required by law.
- PayPal, to process donations or monthly content subscriptions,
- EventBrite, to issue event tickets.
- MailChimp, to manage out mailing list,
- Google GSuite, who provide our email and file storage,

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are:

- (a) Your consent. You are able to remove your consent at any time. You can do this by contacting hello@thundersley.org.uk
- (b) We have a contractual obligation.
- (c) We have a legal obligation.
- (d) We have a vital interest.
- (e) We need it to perform a public task.
- (f) We have a legitimate interest.

How we store your personal information

Your information is securely stored within our electronic systems. Paper records such as marriage certificates, are stored securely in a fire safe.

Our website is hosted in the UK.

We use Google's GSuite for email and file storage. This information may be stored in the UK or US.

We keep your personal information while we have a valid purpose.

- Mail list data = until you unsubscribe,
- Contact information via Facebook or Email = indefinitely,
- Event information = minimum 14 days after event,
- Subscriber information = until you unsubscribe,

We will then dispose your information by removing it from our systems.

Your data protection rights

Under data protection law, you have rights including:

Your right of access - You have the right to ask us for copies of your personal information.

Your right to rectification - You have the right to ask us to rectify personal information you think is inaccurate. You also have the right to ask us to complete information you think is incomplete.

Your right to erasure - You have the right to ask us to erase your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to restriction of processing - You have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to object to processing - You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances.

Your right to data portability - You have the right to ask that we transfer the personal information you gave us to another organisation, or to you, in certain circumstances.

You are not required to pay any charge for exercising your rights. If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you.

Please contact us at hello@thundersley.org.uk if you wish to make a request.
